(Flashback to TAANZ 2015 awards at MOTAT)

- TAANZ NTIA voting opens Tuesday

The travel industry will be able to give their favourite agent or supplier 'a tick' in the National Travel Industry Awards when voting opens on 26 April.

Travel Agents Association of New Zealand (TAANZ) chief executive Andrew Olsen is delighted with the industry interest in this year's event.

'We haven't got beyond the voting stage and already it's pretty clear that competition to be a finalist is hotter than ever,' he says.

'Travel agents can vote for nominated trade suppliers in categories 13 – 22. Suppliers can vote for nominated travel agents in categories 1 - 12, excluding category 2, 3, and 5 where we already have the minimum number required,' advises Olsen. 'In response to some queries on voting eligibility we have clarified our conditions of entry which can be found on the NTIA home page.'

'Ticket sales have commenced and we will soon release details on our MC for the event and something unique for our guests.' says Olsen.

Stay tuned to the One Minute Memo and the TRAVELinc Memo for the NTIA voting link and more event details.
