TAANZ Constitution & Rules - Approved Travel Brokers (Travel Consultants)

Rules governing Approved Travel Brokers (as approved at the TAANZ AGM 9 September 2016)

[Extract from the TAANZ Constitution & Rules concerning Approved Travel Brokers]

TAANZ Approved Travel Brokers

12 (a) TAANZ shall establish a roll of TAANZ Approved Travel Brokers (Travel Brokers) on which it shall establish the names of those persons who have been granted the status of Approved Travel Brokers by the Board. The Roll shall also include the name of the TAANZ member by which or whom the Travel Broker is engaged.

(b) A TAANZ member which or who wishes to enter into a contract with a person pursuant to which that person is to provide services selling travel for and on behalf of the TAANZ member as an independent contractor (rather than as an employee) must ensure that the person so engaged is a TAANZ Approved Travel Broker. Any person who wishes to sell travel and related services to members of the public may apply to become a TAANZ Approved Travel Broker. Such person will need to complete and lodge with TAANZ an application in a form prepared by TAANZ and to meet and continue to comply with the provisions of these rules which apply to Travel Brokers and with the criteria and conditions established by TAANZ for being a Travel Broker.

(c) A TAANZ member which or who engages a Travel Broker must ensure that the Travel Broker complies with the following requirements:

(i) The name of the Travel Broker must be entered on, and remain on, the Roll of TAANZ Approved Travel Brokers.

(ii) The Travel Broker is not contracted to, and does not undertake work for, any other TAANZ member agent or non TAANZ travel agent. A Travel Broker is not permitted to work for, or be contracted to, more than one TAANZ member at any one time.

(iii) The Travel Broker does not enter into any arrangements with principals which would enable the Travel Broker to sell the products or services of such principals directly. The TAANZ member must ensure that every transaction implemented by a Travel Broker, and all documentation relating to such transactions, is channelled through the TAANZ member.

(iv) The Travel Broker does not issue travel documents to clients unless the cost of the same is charged directly by the supplier to the account of the TAANZ member. Travel documentation which is not charged directly to the TAANZ member's account is to be issued by the TAANZ member.

(v) The Travel Broker does not receive the purchase price, or any part thereof for the travel he or she may sell. The purchase price is to be paid directly to the TAANZ member represented by the Travel Broker. The only exception to this is when payment is made by the client being serviced by the Travel Broker to the TAANZ member's bank account, or, by crossed cheque made payable to the TAANZ member.

(vi) The Travel Broker must either work out of his or her home or out of an approved location of the TAANZ member. Where a Travel Broker wishes to work out of an office that is neither a currently approved location of the TAANZ member, nor located at the Travel Broker's home, the TAANZ member, in conjunction with the Travel Broker, must firstly apply to TAANZ to have the location in question approved as an approved location of the TAANZ member.

(vii) All signage and marketing collateral used by the TAANZ Broker, irrespective of the media in which such material is to appear, must identify that the Travel Broker is a Travel Broker for the TAANZ member. For the avoidance of doubt, the convention is to be: first name, surname, followed by, "travel broker", for the name of the TAANZ member. The use of the trading name of the TAANZ member is acceptable.

Should an issue arise as to whether the signage, advertising, marketing or any other public representation is in breach of this provision the matter shall be referred to the Chief Executive Officer of TAANZ who shall determine what, if any, changes need to be made. The TAANZ member shall accept the decision of the Chief Executive Officer of TAANZ and ensure that the Travel Broker makes the appropriate changes of adjustments.

(viii) The Travel Broker complies with all conditions and criteria from time to time required to become and remain a TAANZ Approved Travel Broker.

(d) Travel Brokers may advertise their services and advise details of how they can be contacted at either their home or at the approved location of a TAANZ member that has engaged them.

(e) It is permissible for a TAANZ member to enter into a contract with a company, which company agrees to make the services of a particular Travel Broker available to the TAANZ member. The arrangement is only permissible where the company which contracts with the TAANZ member is a company controlled by the Travel Broker who is to provide the services for the TAANZ member, or by interests which are closely associated with that Travel Broker. In every case the TAANZ member shall ensure that the TAANZ member has an exclusive arrangement with the Travel Broker for the provision of services by the Travel Broker. Only natural persons can be Travel Brokers and the TAANZ member must ensure that its contractual arrangements take cognisance of this requirement.

(f) All TAANZ members who or which engage a Travel Broker as an independent contractor are required to accept that the security they provide to the TAANZ Bonding Authority covers all transactions handled by/implemented by the Travel Broker in the same way and to the same extent as the member would be responsible for the actions of the Broker if he or she were an employee of the member.

TAANZ approved locations: Branch Offices

12A (a) TAANZ members shall only operate from approved locations and shall meet and comply with the criteria specified from time to time in the Criteria for Membership relating to premises.

(b) TAANZ members who advertise themselves or otherwise hold themselves out to members of the public as having either:

(i) An office based at a location, or in a district which is different from the TAANZ member's approved location, from which the TAANZ member is capable of servicing the general or specific needs of members of the public; or

(ii) An employee, or a TAANZ Approved Travel Broker, who is capable of servicing the general or specific travel needs of the public at a location or in a district which is different from the TAANZ member's approved location, must establish an office at that location or in that district which must meet the criteria laid down by TAANZ from time to time for branch offices. Where applicable, the TAANZ member must pay such additional subscriptions as may be from time to time fixed for a branch office.

(c) By way of exception to this requirement to establish a branch office as set out in Rule 12A(b) hereof, a TAANZ member may service clients, or potential clients who are located in a district outside of that serviced by the TAANZ member's approved location, if the TAANZ member engages the services of a TAANZ Approved Travel Broker to do so provided that neither the TAANZ member, or the TAANZ Approved Travel Broker promotes or advertises itself/himself/herself or otherwise holds itself/himself/herself out to members of the public as having an office or base in that district from which the TAANZ member or TAANZ Approved Travel Broker is capable of servicing the general or specific travel needs of members of the public at that location or in that district. This prohibition does not prevent a TAANZ Approved Travel Broker from advertising his or her services or from providing details of how the TAANZ Approved Travel Broker can be contacted by phone, electronic communication or residence.
